DIRECTOR'S CORNER

Happy March, Families!

We are excited to welcome a month full of growth, sunshine, and new beginnings! As spring approaches here in Texas, our classrooms will be exploring themes of literacy, seasonal changes, and friendship. March is a wonderful time to encourage curiosity, independence, and kindness as we head into a new season of learning.

We truly appreciate your partnership and thank you for trusting us with your children each day. Our families make our school community so special!

Warmly,

Kris Hernandez

THIS MONTH'S LEARNING FOCUS

During Dr. Seuss Week (March 3-7), inspired by Dr. Seuss, children will explore rhyming, story sequencing, creative expression, and the joy of reading.

We'll also learn about:

- Spring weather changes in Texas.
- Plant growth and life cycles.
- Nature exploration through outdoor play.

DR. SEUSS WEEK REMINDERS

- Watch for themed dress-up days.
- Children may bring a favorite book to share.
- Read together each evening to celebrate literacy.

PARENT REMINDERS

- Tuition is due every Monday.
- Sign children in and out daily.
- Update contact information as needed.
- Follow us on social media for classroom highlights.

SPRING REMINDERS

Texas weather can change quickly. Please dress children in layers, label jackets, apply sunscreen, and keep weather-appropriate extra clothes in their cubby. Outdoor play will increase as temperatures rise.

FAMILY ENGAGEMENT

We invite families to:

- Share a favorite bedtime book.
- Send a spring outdoor photo.
- Join our Spring Kindness Challenge by completing and sharing one act of kindness.

LOOKING AHEAD TO APRIL

- Easter celebrations, Week of the Young Child, Earth Day activities, and more spring learning fun are coming soon.
- We look forward to a March filled with learning, laughter, and sunshine!
